Dear Mr. Hope:

Thank you very much for writing to me as you did about the talk that I made before the 64th Congress of American Industry.

Your kind comments are particularly gratifying and I am highly pleased to learn from you that the annual meeting was so successful. I might add that it was a pleasure for me to participate in the meeting and I thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

With best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a successful New Year.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The many enthusiastic comments I have heard indicate to me that the 64th Congress of American Industry will rank among the most notable successes this annual meeting of our Association has enjoyed.

Your participation added materially to this success. I want to express to you my personal appreciation for the major contribution you made.

Best wishes for the holidays.

Sincerely yours,

Stanley C. Hope
